OPTION 1
WHAT CAN CAREER SERVICES DO FOR YOUR STUDENT?
Ami Hernandez, Coordinator, Career Services
A good career plan is made up of several components: self-understanding, career awareness, exploration, intentional reflection, decision-making, and an action plan. These components do not necessarily characterize a linear path, and it is likely that your student will visit and revisit some (or all) of them multiple times during their discernment and discovery process. Language Hall 101.

OPTION 2
BEYOND THE CLASSROOM: INVOLVEMENT AND LEADERSHIP FROM THE STUDENT PERSPECTIVE
Rhiannon Hubert, Director, Student Involvement and Leadership
Want to gain an idea of how students are involved outside of the classroom? Come learn about the opportunities on campus and hear from a panel of student leaders about their own experiences at Oxford. Candler Hall, Hassain-Kabir Room.

OPTION 3
EDUCATE THE MIND AND EXERCISE THE BODY: CAMPUS WELLNESS AT OXFORD
Amanda Yu, Director, Center for Healthful Living
Learn how the CHL empowers students to lead a life in balance by addressing the multiple dimensions of college life. Williams Hall 105.

OPTION 4
WHAT HAPPENS AFTER OXFORD: MEET OXFORD ALUMNI
Tammy Camfield, Sr Director, Development & Alumni Relations
Learn how Oxford alumni have used their Emory education to make the world a better place. Seney Hall, 4th Floor Conference Room.

OPTION 5
