RETURNING TO OXFORD FROM THE KENSINGTON MARTA STATION

If you wish to be picked up from the Kensington Marta station, you MUST reserve a seat. This will alert our driver that they should pull into the Kensington station prior to returning to Oxford. Shuttles will only stop at the Kensington Marta station, by request.

RESERVE A SEAT

To reserve a seat, log in to the Oxford Shuttles app at <https://oxford.emory.edu/oxfordshuttle>. Click on 'Kensington Station - Marta' under routes and reserve a seat. When scheduling, be sure to allow ample time for flight or train delays. Once signed up, you will receive alerts from the driver if they are running late or are stuck in traffic. Otherwise, all buses will depart per the schedule above.

RUNNING LATE?

Shuttles can not wait for trains to arrive, however, they will not leave if a train has just pulled in. They are authorized to wait for passengers to exit the station. If you find that you are running late, log back into the shuttles app as soon as possible to update your reservation.

MISSED SHUTTLE

If you miss your shuttle, please log back in and sign up for the next available shuttle. The last shuttle available for pick up from the Kensington Marta station and returning to Oxford's campus Monday-Friday would arrive/depart at 3:30 pm. On Saturday the last available shuttle would arrive/depart at 6:15 pm. Please plan accordingly and allow yourself plenty of time to arrive at the station prior to the shuttles scheduled arrival. Once the last shuttle has departed, you will need to find another way back to campus on your own.
